El Cerrito Free Folk Festival

Saturday, October 22, 2011 - 12 p.m. to 10 p.m.

El Cerrito, California -- Join us as the San Francisco Folk Music Club, in association with The City of El Cerrito Arts and Culture Commission and Windrush School, present the annual El Cerrito Free Folk Festival on Saturday, October 22, 2011 from 12 p.m. to 10 pm.

Open to the public, the daylong arts and music festival is free and will be held at the historic Windrush School located at 1800 Elm Street in El Cerrito, California 94530.

This exciting event will feature performances and workshops by world renowned and local musicians alike, with open microphone and jam sessions, and much, much more. Bands performing include The Lonestar Retrobates, Shay Black, Don Burnham and the Bolos, The Harkenbacks, Larry Hanks and Deborah Robins, Faith Petric, Euphonia and The Quake City Jug Band.

Festival Details: please visit the festival website at www.elcerritofolkfest.org for updates, directions, and a schedule of performers.

Parking is limited, so using public transportation is encouraged. Windrush School is three blocks east of the El Cerrito Del Norte BART station and accessible on several AC Transit Lines.

Windrush School is wheelchair accessible. For disability accommodations, please call 510-809-5611 ten days in advance of event.

Interested joining the El Cerrito Free Folk Festival team? Become a volunteer! Part of what makes this event so unique is that it is run entirely by volunteers—from the individual members of the San Francisco Folk Music Club to the performance and workshop leaders themselves. The success of the festival depends on the donated time, hard work and passion of these volunteers and more are always welcome!
